Car show raises $2,522 for Hospice

Posted 21 September 2016

ALBION – There was a car show on Sept. 10 at Bullard Park that was a benefit for Hospice of Orleans County. There were 41 vintage vehicles at the event and the Masonic Lodge from Albion served food with proceeds donated to Hospice.

Karls has organized the car shows for Hospice the past four years. Fischer said the funds would likely go towards Hospice's supportive care program for patients who receive care and treatment in their own homes.
