Hospice of Orleans Receives a $3,000 Grant from the Wyman-Potter Foundation

Albion, NY: Hospice of Orleans is pleased to announce a grant has been awarded by the Wyman-Potter Foundation. Administered through HSBC Bank USA, N.A., the $3,000 will be used to support the Transitions program. This innovative program offers compassionate assistance, resource linkage and enhanced volunteer services to those undergoing curative treatment for their disease. It is offered at no cost to any resident of Orleans County who is diagnosed with a life limiting illness. This service is available wherever the client resides; in their own home or in an assisted living facility. The Board and Staff are very grateful to HSBC Bank for this very generous support.
